

S.No. : 548

LLM 21002

No. of Printed Pages : 03

Following Paper ID and Roll No. to be filled in your Answer Book.

PAPER ID : 29702

Roll
No.

--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--

LLM Examination 2019-2020
(Odd Semester)

COMPARATIVE PUBLIC LAW

Time : 3 Hours]

[Maximum Marks : 60

Note : (i) Attempt any five questions.

(ii) Each questions carry equal marks.

SECTION - A

1. 'Constitutionalism is not merely a bundle of constitutional rules but rather a way of political life of a nation.' Critically comment.
2. Globalization entails and intensities international competition for investment capital, human talent and technology. Discuss commenting the challenges faced by the modern constitutional systems in the context of globalised world order.

[P. T. O.

3. The efficiency of the courts is an important component in rule of law reforms as the existence of a judiciary is a fundamental aspect of the rule of law. Discuss in a comparative perspective.
4. The principle of separation of powers in common law countries cannot function except in association with the theory of check and balances and an impartial and independent judiciary as watch dog. Discuss.
5. Is India a Federal Country in true sense? Explain the theory of federalism and emergence of economic liberalization in India.
6. Write a detailed but comparative note on the independence of judiciary in India. How can we solve the tussle between the judiciary and the executive in this regard.

7. Federalism, it is said started with the rigid approach but over the period of time it has been given a flexible approach. Discuss critically the changing dimension of the concept of federalism.

8. The legislative relations between the centre-state have seen different dimensions in the leading federal constitutions. Evaluate critically the positions and point out how and where the constitution of India stands.

