6. (a) Translate into Hindi :

Women are the most beautiful creation of God. Indian history and mythology have given a place of pride to women. The worldly affairs are not complete without women. They are more sensitive and creative than men. They have capacity to survive their lives in every challenging conditions. But it is disappointing feature of our society that the socio-economic and political conditions are not very much comfortable in the male dominated society. The motherhood and womenhood is not respected in due sense, rather it is ignored. Women have one natural and extra ordinary right to give birth to a child which is given by nature. They are known as a mother of universe. But in Indian society they are being discriminated since beginning of the civilization. It can be seen easily in the society. If we have to save the motherhood and build the nation then we should denounce the all types of practices which derogate the dignity of women.
